

Disposal of Waste Food Under Animal By-Products Regulations 2005

Food that CANNOT go to Landfill

Raw Meat & Fish

Includes:

- Raw Sausages, bacon & gammon
 - Raw burgers
 - Rare cooked meat (pink meat)
 - Beef jerky
 - Parma & Serrano ham
 - Raw poultry
 - Raw fish
 - Smoked Salmon
 - Sushi
 - Frozen raw meat
- Other
- Honey (in bulk, not as ingredient)
 - Raw eggs

DISPOSE OF SEPARATELY IN A MARKED BIN

- Store away from cooked food
- Label "NOT FOR HUMAN CONSUMPTION"
- Check your collector sends this to an approved plant
- Keep a record of what material you send, where it is sent, who transports it and the date. These records MUST be kept for two years.

Food that CAN go to Landfill

Cooked Meat & Fish

Includes:

- Cooked ham
- Ready meals
- Cooked Pies
- Salami
- Lard and goose fat
- Tinned meat and fish
- Pies and pasties (including sausage rolls)
- Frankfurters & cocktail sausages
- Dips with cooked meat

Bakery Products

Includes:

- Bread
- Cakes
- Pastry
- Biscuits
- Pasta
- Chocolate
- Breakfast cereals

All unsold fruit & vegetables

ORDINARY WASTE DISPOSAL BIN

Remember Your Duty of Care

It is a legal requirement to obtain a collection note/waste transfer note for each collection made. This document must be filed within the EMS.

The food items listed above are for guidance only. The list is not intended to be exhaustive. If you are unsure into which disposal category a particular item of food falls, please check with your Local Authority

The contractor appointed to collect raw meat and raw fish is...

Collections are made ...

If you need to arrange an unscheduled collection, please call...

Think before you bin!

Disposal of waste food under the Animal By-Products Regulation (ABPR)

